Phase 1 Findings

Stakeholders involved
Organizations identified common internal and external stakeholders that are involved in the establishment of their Integrated Youth Service. The most notable findings are highlighted.

Rationales for Establishment
Organizations identified common rationales for the establishment of their Integrated Youth Service. The most notable findings are highlighted.

Organizational Principles
Organizations identified common principles that are present in their establishment of their Integrated Youth Service. The most notable findings are highlighted.

Networks: Role of Backbone vs Service Sites
In Phase 1, organizations identified that they have a backbone network that provides support and coordination to their service sites. The backbone network is responsible for providing policy, strategy, and support to the service sites.

Funding: Sources and Types
Organizations identified the various sources and types of funding that are available for the establishment of their Integrated Youth Service. The most notable findings are highlighted.

Governance Structures
Organizations identified that the governance structures for their Integrated Youth Service vary considerably. The backbone network may involves a combination of internal and external stakeholders.

Enablers and Barriers
Organizations identified the enablers and barriers to the establishment and sustainability of their Integrated Youth Service. The most notable findings are highlighted.

Sustainability Contributors and Threats
Organizations identified the contributors and threats to the sustainability of their Integrated Youth Service. The most notable findings are highlighted.